maroon senior gold

the marsengold 1988

And on the first day . . . we, the class of 1988, were made freshmen. Thrust into a hostile world of upperclassmen, we had to familiarize ourselves with our new environment. Like little creatures we scurried about the halls searching for homeroom and locker, trying to avoid the traps, stampedes, and pitfalls that awaited us.

Still suffering from senior-inflicted inferiority as we entered our sophomore year, we were up to our ears in "Gummy Bears." We got on course, however, with a surprising victory at the Halloween Assembly. Displaying our immortal school spirit, we demolished the opposition once again with our spectacular Homecoming float. Class rings, class day — time was slipping away.

Time slipped away at a swifter pace as we anticipated the thrills of a new freedom. Remember driver's ed — enduring the endless hours of third-rate movies, boring lectures, the sensation of terror the first time we sat behind the wheel of Taggart's famous automobile? What a price we paid to finally go where we had never gone before and do it behind the wheel of OUR car.

No longer intimidated by the daily routine, we began investigating the array of opportunities beyond the security of Sharon High — college mini-fairs, PSATs, guidance workshop, SATs, achievements, and an avalanche of brochures from places we never new existed. They all contained the same topic sentence: "From the Student Search Service, we have determined that you are a candidate likely to succeed at our university . . . " The choices overwhelmed us, but only momentarily.

So, aspirations of college entered our cluttered minds; there were so many things to think about. We continued to work hard in the classroom, but we never forgot how to play hard too. Dressed to the nines in tuxedos and gowns, we danced the prom evening away at the Sheraton. To top the year off, we hit Horseneck Beach and perfected developing tans, transforming us into golden senior gods and goddesses . . .

The summer passed as always. For some it meant rest and relaxation. For the less fortunate, it meant slaving away at part and fulltime jobs. The work didn't end, however, as the day dawned on our senior year. This was it, the home stretch to our ultimate goal — GRADUATION. But it took great pains to reach that moment — fulfilling academic requirements, taking and retaking SATs and achievements, tackling college applications and essays . . .

It was worth it. As yearbook and newspaper editors and varsity captains, the school was ours. Walking tall, we dominated the underclassmen and enjoyed well-deserved privileges — use of the links and talking studies.

As we cross the threshold of Sharon High for the last time, we look back upon the last four years as the best and worst of times. Images flash through our minds now of cluttered corridors, earsplitting assemblies, a congested parking lot, and mobbed lunchroom. The space we once occupied may be reclaimed by next year's freshmen, but the spirit of the class of 1988 can never be surpassed.

At first we thought the teachers were soulless automatons programmed to do only one thing — to belittle, criticize, intimidate, flunk, overwhelm (not necessarily in that order), but we soon discovered that they were our friends. We found that they were there for us in and out of school; they were always willing to spend that extra moment with us. They gave us the courage to ask questions and to challenge them. With the knowledge that they have imbued us with, we will face the world without fear, set new goals, and strive to realize our dreams.

In many aspects he has been an active participant in our lives, as a teacher, an advisor, and a coach, but most importantly, he has been our friend. Through the good times and the bad, he has always given us enthusiastic support and encouragement. He has shown us, by example, that determination and courage will allow us to achieve our dreams.

Over the past four years, we all have changed; he witnessed our growth, but despite all the changes, he remained, as always, an optimistic force in our lives. His optimism, his commitment to the class of 1988 will remain in our hearts, for he has touched all of us. We dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Paul Duff with gratitude and appreciation, for, "If we could hold a star for each time he made us smile, we'd hold the whole evening sky in the palm of our hands."

On the night of Friday May 22, 1987 our Junior Prom was held at the Sheraton Mansfield. Diana Steele, from KISS 108 Dee-Jayed the tunes as we celebrated this special evening. Heather Krent was chosen as Prom Queen and the following were members of her court: Deana Marini, Alisson McDermott, Rachel Grossman, Allison Weinstein and Suzie Alper. The Prom seemed like it had hardly began when we found ourselves dancing to the last song: Never say Goodbye. And we never will.

Class Day At Horseneck Beach was Awesome!!! The sun sizzled as bodies baked. For entertainment there was volleyball, swimming and riding the waves. It seemed like everyone was in the water at the same time . . . and there was Hillary, Stephanie and Andrea taking lots of candids for our yearbook memories.

sports

The Sharon High Girls Tennis Team had a great season, making it to the state tournaments. In losing senior Julie Sullivan, the team remains very strong for the 1988 season. Behind the leadership of captains Melynne Kessel, Michelle Schlessinger, and Hillary Weingast, the team looks forward to another winning season.

The Sharon High Boys Tennis Team won it all last year, beating Andover High in the state finals by a match score of 3-2. Dave Katz (1), Tim Lipsky (2), and Lenny Levine (3) recorded wins in this final match. The doubles team of David Katz (5), Robby Bessler (4), and Harry Palmin (6), and Steve Kritzman (7) also produced well all year long. The team as a whole remained undefeated through all of their matches, from the beginning of the Hockomock league season through the state tournament.

The Boys and Girls Spring Track Teams both had good records last season due to the unity and optimism of each team. Despite injuries, the teams pulled through with success. Sportsmanship and spirit were just some of the qualities that made the season fun in spite of all the hard work. Those same ingredients are sure to spur the team on to greater heights in the coming season.

The Sharon High School softball team has always been noted for their dilligence and enthusiasm. The same goes true for this years team. Our coaches, Jim Regan and Charles Egan, led the team through very demanding practices and helped the team to be at their best during games. The experienced seniors led the underclassmen through our best moments and our worst. The effort of every player shone through in each game we played, proving hard work and a strong team effort pays off.

The Varsity Baseball Team started the 1987 season on the wrong side of the bench. But strong guidance from Coach Peckham led the Eagles to win the last 7 out of 8 league games. With Scott Brody, Doug Parsloe, and John Stamaris as co-captains, and the rest of the senior squad, the Eagles can forecast a very profitable season for 1988. The Possible Expectation, "Hockomock League Champs."

The Golf team was led by captain Scott Brody, one of four seniors who made outstanding contributions to this year's team. The three other seniors were Doug Parsloe, Mike Berke, and Mark Levitz. One of this year's surprises was sophomore Jon Winn who played phenomenally well throughout the season. His classmate, Charlie Haner, also played very well at his number six spot. According to captain Scott Brody, "The golf team is a great selection of fine, young men who can win a match on any given day, but just can't seem to win all at once." At the end of this year's season, the record was 6 wins, 9 losses, and 1 tie.

After a disappointing 0-3 start, the Eagles turned their season around 180 degrees. They moved into the Division II South Sectional State Tournament by the season's close. After two well played wins over Norwell (1-0), and South Boston (2-1), they went on to the semi-finals against Holliston. At the conclusion of their season, the Eagles had achieved what no other Sharon Varsity soccer team had done in 21 years.

Contributing to this singular achievement was the fine teamwork of seniors Evan Kaplan, John DiRe, Scott Nathan, Jamie Nimberg, Dan Winkler, Glenn Singer, Ken Beck and Co-Captains John Stamaris and Geoff Mostow.

The '87 fall season marked the first ever for the Sharon Girls Varsity Soccer Team. And what a first season it was! Under the patient coaching of Jon Abrahamson, all 31 girls who participated brought new meaning to the words spirit and determination. Although 95% of the players had never played competitive soccer before, the girls worked hard, learned quickly, and ended up with an impressive 3-8-1 record. We say good-bye this year to senior co-captains Colette O'Brien, and Jen Goldstein, who both brought experience as well as motivation to the entire team. Also leaving will be Haley Smirnoff, Mine Erkan, Linh Tran, and Ellen Gould. With a full season of experience under everyone's belt, the prospects look bright for next year with returning goal-keeper Kristen Mobilia and defensive strength Carol Lemovitz as co-captains. A special thanks to Mr. Davenport, Mr. Blanchon, and Colette O'Brien who after a year's efforts made this team a reality.

Determination, sportsmanship and team unity were the key components of the fine, fun-loving cross country team. Although there were many illnesses, the team's dedication proved to be an important factor in their successful season. Natalie Howard provided the team with a front runner. Captains Natalie Howard and Vanita Bhargava, along with seniors Lauren Houde, Leah Mermelstein, and Michelle Sobel, created a close-knit, hard working group. All the girls improved greatly throughout the season; however, it is the friendships and unity of this team which made the season special.

The 1987 boys cross country team was composed of a well balanced group of seniors and underclassmen. Captains Peter Butanowicz and John Rutberg provided leadership and spirit. Ronnie Grigg, Josh Edmonds, Lonnie Elfbaum, Stephen Elkind and Andy Lipsky were the members of a hard working team. The fine coaching of Mr. Egan resulted in a very successful season. Great improvement was shown by the underclassmen. The key to their success was team work.

Field Hockey is a team sport that requires a special network of communication and interaction to produce an outstanding season. This year's team was the perfect example. Under both the leadership of Mary Anthony and Kara Zeigler as well as the strong contribution of seniors Shana Liberman and Chris Parker, this year's team had that special determination to create quite an impression. The team appreciates Coaches Decas and Peckham, and Edward Ebbinge for their efforts and dedication.

It was a season filled with losses occurring in the waning moments of many games. The spirit of the team, however, was undaunted and the team played with spirit and determination. Under the leadership of the captains: Jon Siegal, Jo Jo Peckham, Brad Fitzhenry and Hockomock League All Star — Steve Fontes, the team worked valiantly against strong opposition. They received dynamic support from seniors Randy Hirschorn, Charlie McNair, Dale Thistle, Neil Feldman, Randy Guy, Charlie Cohen, Joe Generazzo, Song Chae Park, Jon Cohen, and Gary Sacon.

basketball tri-captains: Joe Generazzo, Steve Elkind, and Peter Butanowicz.

Although the basketball season is not yet finished, the Eagles are currently soaring with an overall record of 5-3. Led by Tri-Captains Peter Butanowicz, Steve Elkind, and Joe Generazzo, the basketbal team expects to see post-season play in the State Tournament. This year's Hockomock League is one of the most competitive in years, hosting numerous upsets and "buzzer-beater" shots. Third in the league, the Eagles are taking the season in stride and fighting their way to the top.

The 1987-1988 Sharon Eagles Girls Varsity Basketball team may have had a poor record but what didn't show up in the standings showed up on the court. Although young and inexperienced, the team really came together to prove their determination and potential. With patient coaching from Coach Allman, the Girl Eagles emerged to be a powerful force on the court, unfortunately coming out on the short end of many close scoring games. The Eagles lose senior leaders Jennifer Goldstein, Natalie Howard, and Kim Hunter, but look forward to a strong season next year under captains Kathy Crehan and Kristin Mobilia. Look for the Eagles to dominate in the next couple of years. Good luck girls!

The gymnastics team, led by tri-captains Jenny Ackerman, Jenny Houston, and Yvonne McMullen, has had a successful season so far. The team proves to be a strong one, placing first in the Hockomock League and fifth in the state last year. Contributing to the team's success, along with the tri-captains, are: senior, Dawn Herzbrun, sophomores, Nova Wolfson. Heather MacDonald, and Mari Johnson, freshmen, Amy Heinberg, Marcia Fleishman, and Charlene Russo. With good, comes bad, and bad is the unfortunate injury of Cara Ferrin. The team is looking forward to another winning season and hope to end with a flying leap!!

In its first year of league matches, the team got off to an extremely good start, winning their first four matches. Led by coaches Brian Gallagher, and Jim Fraser, the team showed a lot of promise, and established itself as a dominate force in the League. Outstanding contributions to this achievement were made by seniors Jon Bjorkholm, Todd Cantor, Jeff DeVasto, Randy Guy, Jack Mazur, Jon Rankin, and Andy Rodman.

Halloween '87 proved again to be one of the most exciting days at Sharon High. Along with the traditional Halloween witches, ghosts, and goblins, there were many spirited, creative costumes haunting the halls. One could bump into a Chinese take out order, a mermaid, a pair of beds, a tall-short man, a group of pink ladies, a sheet family, a bunch of California raisins, a group of visitors from the Wizard of Oz, and Pee Wee Herman just to name a few. The annual Halloween Assembly was a huge success with most of the students displaying their school spirit by dressing up. The seniors won the prize for the most students in costume and for the most spirited class. (No big surprise there.) Hey, there's always next year for all you underclassmen. Overall, it was a fantastic Halloween day!

The bright rays of the October sun lit up the faces of the Eagle fans as their team took the field for the annual Homecoming football game. Joe Generazzo got things off to an exciting start when he scored a touchdown.

The halftime show led by senior Queen Kara Zeigler and her court, Allysa Freshman, Rachel Grossman, Debbie Katz, Heather Krent and Jill Schwab, lifted Eagle spirits to new heights.

Stealing the show, was the victorious Senior class float. While the Sophomore class made a respectable showing in a close second. As for the freshmen and Juniors, well . . . better luck next year.

The day's only disappointment was Sharon's loss to the King Phillip Panthers.

thanksgiving pep rally 87

The Thanksgiving football game a day away, Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors donned rally caps and strained their vocal cords, cheering the players on as they wrapped up the Fall season. Balloons, banners, and streamers cluttered the resounding gymnasium. In addition to the traditional shows put on by the cheerleaders and pom-pom squad, spectacular floor routines by members of the audience proved to be the highlight of the morning, evoking deafening hollers and screams, transforming the Rally into a gymnastics competition. The annual competition was won by none other than the unbeatable Senior Class!

The sounds of soft southern drawls were heard throughout the Arthur E. Collins Auditorium as the Drama Club presented their production of Truman Capote's "The Grass Harp."

Under the direction of the Philip Athanas-Brown, S.H.S. Drama Director and Jackie Capell, Assistant Drama Director, "The Grass Harp" featured Adam Goldman, Mitchell Green, Cindy Briggs, Alicia Leonard, and Carla Bolden in prominent roles.

In addition to a large and excellent cast the production received strong support from the fine set made by the production crew, and the costumes, make-up, lighting, sound, props, and publicity. All in all another winning effort by the drama club!!
